About This Game

In a world where war has been waged for 80 years, the general public revel in televised transmissions of battles, which rage right across the globe.

The best soldiers have become celebrity A-listers and their fights draw incredibly huge bets.

You take on the role of one of these soldiers and have to forge a career for yourself as a champion, idolized by the masses! If you get tired of the massacring, join up with the resistance and fight the system. They've seen you're a natural born leader!

KEY POINTS:

- Bet and kill to earn enough money to survive
- Travel the four corners of the earth, with more than 40 champions to beat in 25 missions
- Non-linear storyline with two possible endings
- Full, evolving arsenal with over 40 weapons
- Two endings - choose your own destiny

Great fun, short but with an interesting artistic style. Highly recommend playing it.

. Big Action Mega Fight!

fast game with modern day graphics with easy controls that moves from location A to B to C and so on, good amount of action and special effects, good game.

Personal Suggested Purchase Price: $0.49 Or Less During Sale. I bought a bunch of bullet hell/shmup games during steam winter sale and this one was my favorite, for the following reasons:

1. It is drop dead cheap.
2. Utilizes the full screen rather than putting black bars on the side, and using only the center portion for play which most other games of this genre do. It drives me mad. What's the point of wasting 50% of the screen, really annoying!
3. The soundtrack is great.
4. The graphics are very good, they are not some low res stuff that is scaled up. This is a modern product with 1080p graphics, which is what sets it apart from most of the other bullet hell games which seem to low res graphics and seem very outdated.
5. Controller support which surprisingly some of the bullet hells don't have (looks at eXceed with disappointment).

Wish more shmups/bullet hells utilized full screen and had modern graphics. Is that really so much to ask for?. A really fun little game, with a great mechanic. Can't seem to get the multiplayer to work though.. When right in the first zone after the tutorial, in the 2nd battle my lvl3 beasts drop like flies to a lvl1 mob, because it pops attacks faster then I can possible react, I'm fairly sure the design department failed really hard.

well... phew, finally finished this story. i missed a critical clue, that is to ask the guy in barber about the smith's love, so he would tell you that miss green involved in it. this is hard to get for me, until i use the method of exhaustion: ask everyone every line in my note... which is a hard work... lol. orz this is a short game.

graphic: good and impressive. reminds me the style in the movie: the adventures of tintin of steven spielberg.

9V10

sound: good too, but would be better if has actor's voice.

9V10

story: well... it is hard to tell without spoiling. the story tells a female detective in the old days in san francisco. one day she got a case, that the client asked her to investigate a threaten mail. but durin the investigation, when it was about to closed, the client was murdered, there went the stage 2 of it, to investigate his death. the murderer is really a surprise, but that makes sense. besides the detective itself, the history elements play an important role in it. the bootleggers, the mob fighting, fake death, etc. get into the scenes, and you will fully feel the life of that age. but, lack of literary expressions, but more like some kinda news report, imho the words are somehow plain.

game design: ive read some of the reviews and theyve made the point. the game can add some more achievements, like, the talk in the cab could be a way to collect infos, and, there could be more collective items. can add some more achievements, and maybe multiple endings. but if it is really like so, may distract from the main story, might not be that good for this particular one. tho, as a mystery game, sometimes the info you need to ask isnt so obvious, and the difficulty cannot be any lower. if there adds a "fail" in it, means you probably can not solve the case, or lead you to the misjudgement, and just ends so, and no results can be undone, it can be replayable.

7V10. Easiest way to stop your friends from requesting the use of your VR setup.. Pretty decent puzzle-type game -- fun!. A good game with the potential of becoming great. Combat in general is pretty fun, although it could take some getting used to. Currently suffers from small playerbase and lack of polish, but if you're looking for a multiplayer dueling action game I can pretty confidently recommend it.

Also, the developers are very responsive to feedback and are constantly patching the game.. game trailer mislead everyone. game is now abandoned
